

Technical Data Sheet

Product : One Pack Stabilizer
Product Code : SCI-275-SLF

Stabplast's One Pack Stabilizer is a complex stabilizer system consisting balanced proportion of Lead Based stabilizer and lubricant having enhanced performance as compared to individual stabilizers.

- SCI-275-SLF is a special product formulated mainly for Flushing giving exceptional results.
- It has very very high heat stability with moderate lubrication and can be added as per the operator.
- Superior raw materials to give very good thermostability and adjusted lubrication.

Typical Properties

Appearance	White Creamy Flakes
Lead Content (PbO)	43± 1%
Dosage	1.8-3.0phr
Packing	25kg HDPE Bag with Liner

Application:

Flushing of Screw Barrel of PVC rigid pipes for agricultural, SWR and commercial application

Stabplast's products are manufactured under strict process parameters and standardised procedures to provide finest quality product, every time.

- Stabplast's one pack is generally available in a fine flake form for less wastage and dust control. However the same could be provided as a fine powder on customer requirement.
- Sample and further Technical details available on request.
- Handling Recommendation: Due care should be taken to use gloves and nose mask.
- Customers are advised to ascertain the suitability of the product before use as the user conditions are beyond our control.

